Weekly Lessons and Ensemble Participation at PP: Parental Agreement Enrolling your child in PP Lessons and Ensembles signifies that the parent agrees to the following:

- We'll support you and your child with our very best. Please make sure your child's weekly schedule is conducive to assuring success within our music program. If a child has too many other demands on his / her time that are interfering, we reserve the option of suggesting that changes are made.
- The private lesson students' parent is required to attend weekly lessons to take notes, through at least year 3 of instruction at PP, longer if child is very young.
- Parent is also responsible to practice with child at home, the length of the child's lesson, 5 or 6 times weekly. (see 07-08 updated handbook/ currently not available as of 7/07 )
- Two lesson absences allowed with 24 hours notice, per semester, without charge
- Communication with families will be done primarily by e-mail. Habitual daily checking is essential.
- Ensembles open only to PP private Lesson Students at this time
- Private lesson / ensemble students are required to participate in one recital, and possibly a second opportunity to perform for the public, per semester. Cooperation and support sincerely appreciated from families.
- Providing advance notice of performance dates will be a priority.
- Consistent attendance at lessons and ensemble required.
- All private lesson students under 7 years of age are required to participate in Kindermusik classes and are welcome to participate in the appropriate ensemble as well.
- All private lesson students 7 & up are required to participate in an ensemble.

Studio Attendance & Withdrawal Policies:

- Consistency in attendance is essential to your child's overall benefit from Kindermusik and other studio programs. Come to every session unless your child has a fever. We cannot offer make-ups unless there is room in an alternate class.
- With small classes the Kindermusik and studio program spaces are given and held for your child at enrollment. A great deal of planning and preparation goes into each session with your child in mind. Tuition refunds will only be given if you are moving out of the area or if you have a death in the family that requires that you be out for several weeks.
- We reserve the option of giving your child's spot away immediately in Kindermusik or other studio programs upon withdrawal from our program.
- Taxes for All Posted classes are included in tuition.
- Class Schedules, Curricula, Discount/Tuition Info & Dates Subject to Change Without Notice. Before Enrolling, Please Check Website for Current Information.
- Kit fees cover your student kit(s) with shipping / handling, tax & registration. Kit fee is non-refundable.
